

Out and About Excursion coming in September!
Sign Up Now!

The Borscht Belt Museum
90 Canal Street Ellenville, NY 12428
September 23rd from 10:30-12:00
Admission $25 Guided Tour- pay at the door

The Borscht Belt Museum celebrates the golden age of the Catskills resort era, when millions of urban dwellers sought refuge in the mountains of upstate New York, leaving deep imprints on mainstream American culture, from stand-up comedy and comfort food to mid-century modern design and popular concepts of leisure.

Enjoy our new main exhibit, "Catskills Romance: Love & Desire in the Borscht Belt." Visit the exhibition page for more information.

And make sure you check their exciting additional exhibits: a recreated 1960's bungalow kitchen and casino, and a replica of a 1970's Kutsher's hotel room in the museum's stunning bank vault.

AND THEN:

It's time to Eat at COHEN's BAKERY!!!

The "Home of the Famous Raisin Pumpernickel Bread" can be found in the Hudson Valley, Cohen's Bakery, 89 Center St, Ellenville, NY 12428, is the home to many things such as friendly service, delicious pastries, homemade cream cheese and most importantly, freshly made bread! Separate checks are available.

Sign up for the Museum, the Bakery or both!

Click on the link or use the QR code below to sign up!

September 23rd Borscht Belt Museum 10:30-12:00 \$25 pay at the door – Fill out form

